

90% Adopt Digital Health, Despite Financial Pressures

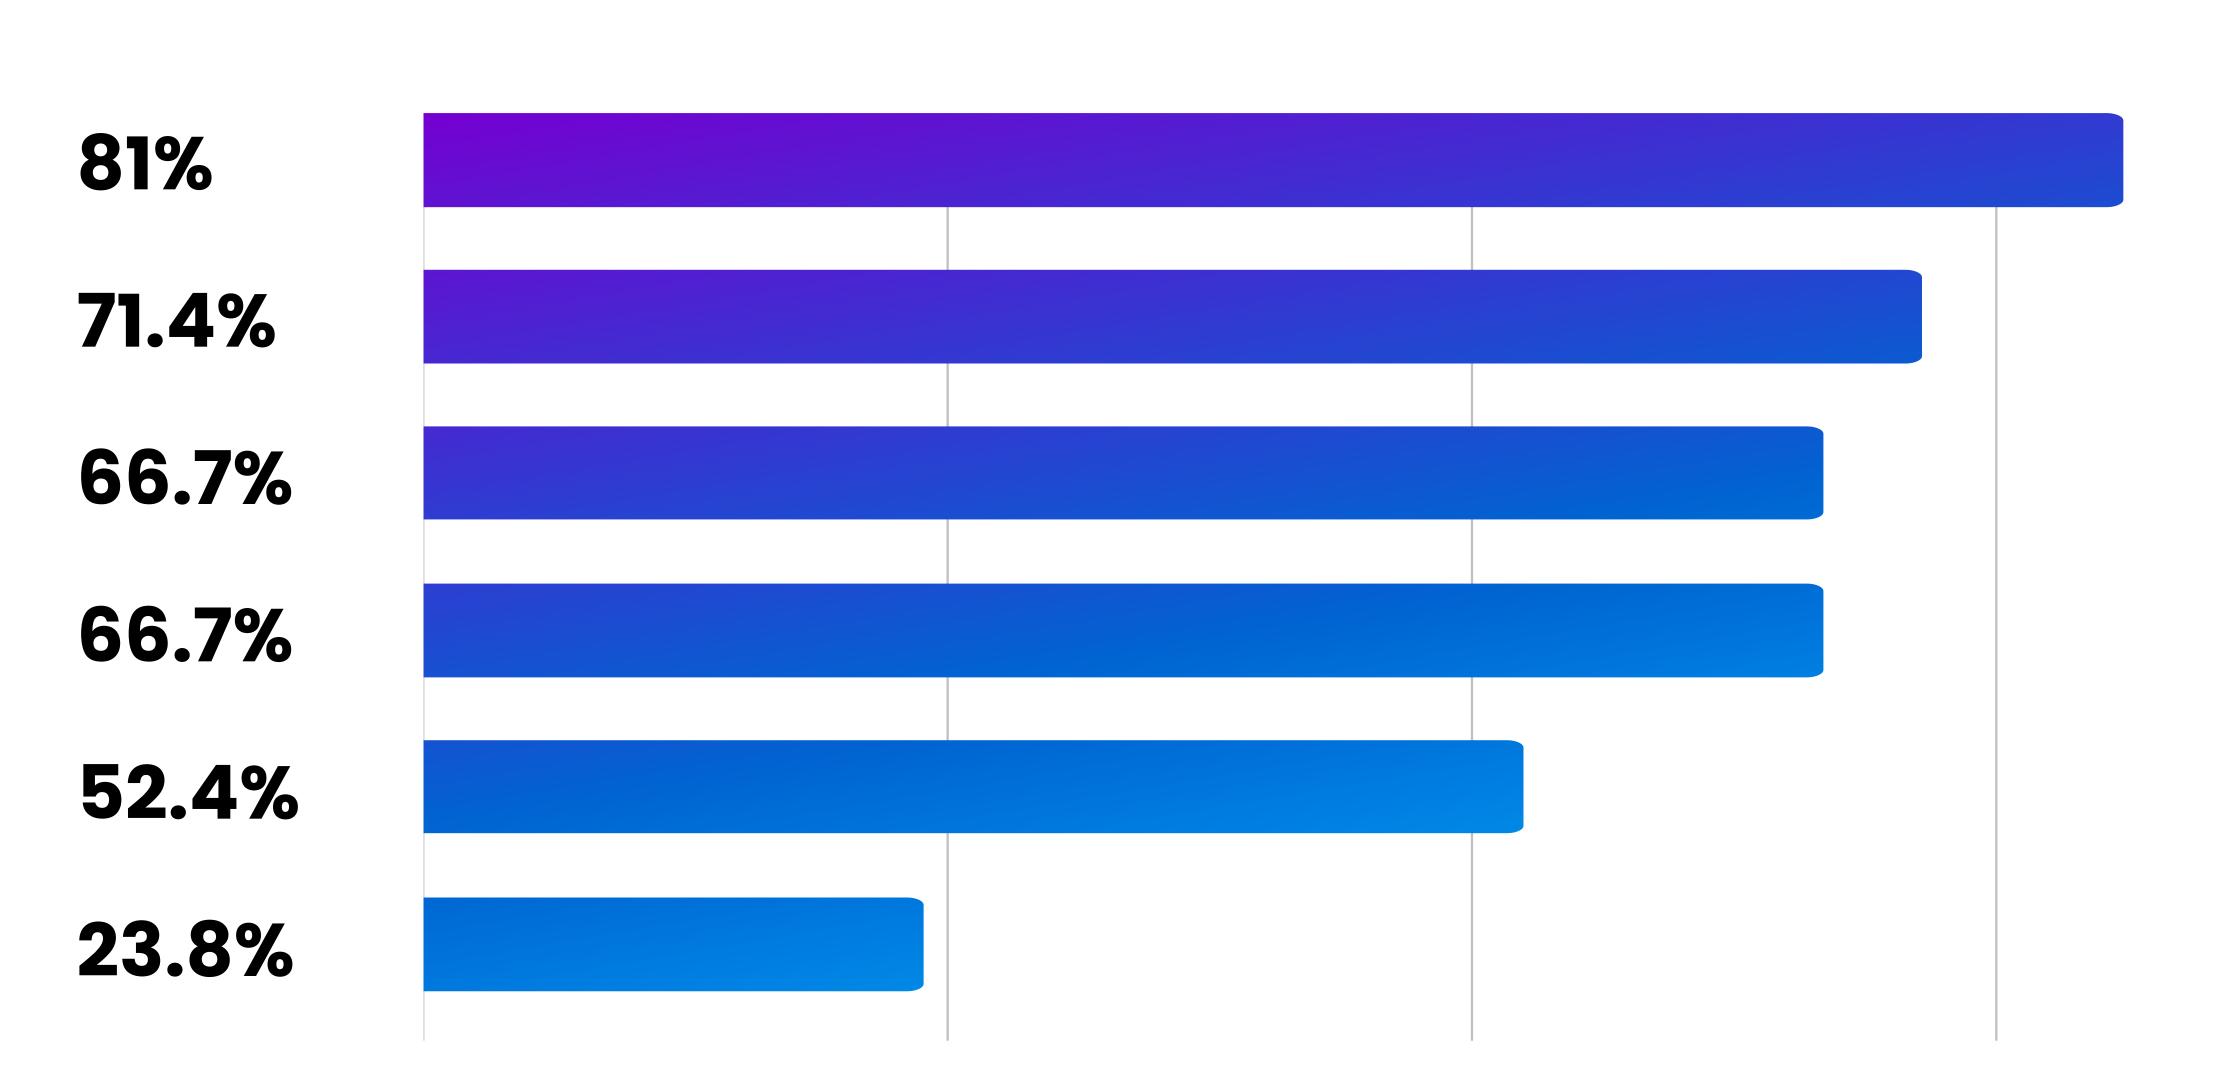

Recent survey of CHIME members found that most (90.5%) executive respondents have adopted digital health...

What is Digital Health?

Downloadable apps and programs with a connected device Patient education, pdfs and videos (not clinical references) Remote patient monitoring (RPM) device data integration Downloadable apps and programs (no connected devices) Home health and related services Non-clinical services (meal delivery, transportation)

Workflow Rules

Majority have integrated digital health apps into EHR workflow

19.1% have achieved advanced EHR integration of digital health apps with defined goals and metrics

Impact of Digital Health Adoption

More than 3 in 4 (76.2%) respondents state their health systems have increased patient engagement due to increased digital health adoption

14.5% Better bottom line

Nearly half cited clinician ease of use

14.5/0

Reduced readmissions

Money and Patients Talk

What would make your health system more likely to expand digital health solutions? Select all that apply

81.0%

More payor or employer funded programs

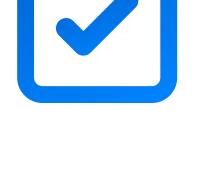

71.4% Patient demand

66.7%

Improved interoperability & ease of integration

42.9%

Clear CPT codes for digital interventions

33.3%

More clinical evidence

